Savages Defeat Bears and Buck
Sterzer With Ease.

Topeka Now Is Only One Notch
From the Top.

Denver, Colo., May 9.—Although Goodwin and Tydemann, two of their best men, were out of the lineup, the Topeka Savages continued their advance to the top of the Western league standing column here Monday afternoon, and by defeating the Bears 11 to 5, stepped to within one notch of the Wichita league leaders.

Manager Oakes sent Buck Sterzer, his best pitcher, against the Bears, but in the sixth session he was driven from the mound and Kins replaced him. However, the game already had been salted away and the visitors had little to worry about.

Goodwin's place on third was filled by Pitcher Lambeth and Pitcher Marshall covered Tydemann's territory in left field. However, these two substitutes did more than fill the shoes of the regulars in the field as they started the scoring in the first inning. Lambeth getting a double and scoring a few minutes later on Marshall's single.

The Other Scores.

Two more scores were added in the third, three in the fourth, one in the fifth and four in the sixth when Sterzer was knocked out of the box. The Bears scored two in the second, two in the sixth and one in the seventh and this was all they could get. All of the Savages appeared to have their hitting habits on, and a total of 17 bingles were accumulated by them. Kruger led the sluggers with a home run, a double and a single out of five times at bat. Schweitzer also got three hits, one of which was a triple. Larson, the Topeka pitcher, allowed 10 hits, but he kept them scattered and did not exert himself to any great extent. Before the battle it was announced that the game scheduled to be played here Thursday had been transferred to Topeka and that the two teams would leave here Wednesday night. The score:

Pool Hall Men Test Law.

St. Joseph, Mo., May 9.—A case by which pool hall owners here hope to test the validity of Sunday closing orders recently issued by the police commission, will come before police court here Thursday morning. After all pool halls had remained closed one Sunday, one of the places, by agreement with the others, violated the order last Sunday and the proprietor and others found in the room were arrested. The pool hall men contend the "old" order is discriminatory.

Frank Moran and Carl Morris at Tulsa, Okla., on Memorial day. That seems to be the next big fight shindig. Sammy McClintic came from Tulsa to get the big fellow's signature to a set of articles calling for a ten-round fight with the pride of Sapulpa. He offered Moran $20,000 for his entire privilege of 40 per cent, but Moran held out for an additional 10 per cent, saying that he was entitled to the lion's share, as he had just held Willard off for ten rounds without much trouble.

The report that Jimmy Jackson's red shirt turned green when the Savages defeated the Wolves in three straight games cannot be verified.

Speaking of Jimmy Jackson, it might be germane to the subject to suggest that the reader draw a mental picture of Jimmy haranguing a crowd and urging it to desert when it was attempting to murder an umpire who had just rendered a decision against his club.

Vincent Wiesing, the promising young Topeka catcher who was unable to land a permanent berth on the Savage roster, has been sent to the Virginia club of the Northern league under an optional agreement.

Wiesing left behind him a record that will never be surpassed. When he quit the Savages he had a batting average of an even 1.000. Twice he was called upon as a pinch hitter. Once he died at bat, and the other time he smashed out a 2-bagger.

A BOOST FOR KENNEDY.

Upon hearing of the election of Dr. Kennedy as Ichabod football coach to succeed "Crip" Gray, "Blondy" Millico, the left legged Washburn star of a few seasons ago, who was the greatest punter the Ichabods ever had and who is still talked of whenever football prowess is mentioned at the college made the following comment in a letter to a Topeka friend:

"When I read in the State Journal that Dr. Bert Kennedy had been signed as director of Washburn athletics for the next three years I was scarcely able to credit the correctness of my vision. Is it possible that Washburn is waking up? Can it be true that they are not going to experiment for another series of years with untried youths, and is it possible that athletic teams, successful ones, are the greatest publicity agents that a school can encourage?"

Continuing, "Blondy" says: "However, inasmuch as I have read it in the Topeka State Journal, it must be true, and I am sincerely glad to see Washburn get a man like Kennedy, and feel sure that he will put the college back on the athletic map. I know, from my own personal experience, that he can do wonders with only mediocre football material and Thursday's game with the Bears was transferred to Topeka so that the Denver club could make the jump to St. Joseph Friday in time to play the game scheduled for that day. Also, Savage consented to it because after the 3-game series with Wichita, ending Sunday, there will be no more games here until the first of June.

The sale of "Bugs" Grover to Sioux City came as something of a surprise, despite the fact that many local fans were looking for something to happen to him.

It was reported that Grover wanted to go to Wichita, but he decided to stay in Topeka. He says that he really wanted to stay in Topeka and that he had made all arrangements to do so.

25 YEARS AGO IN TOPEKA

From the columns of
THE TOPEKA STATE JOURNAL

May 9, 1891.

The Social science club of Kansas and Western Missouri is in session at the First Congregational church at Kansas City, Kan. It is the eleventh annual meeting of the club and there is a very fair proportion of members present.

John White, notorious for his frequent spree was seriously, perhaps fatally, stabbed by a drunken companion at a few minutes before six this morning. J. S. Stevens, an ex-rebel soldier and a well known tough, who proudly styles himself the "terror of Sordale" is the man who did the deed.

John keeps a small stand on Kansas avenue between Railroad and Curtis streets in North Topeka. White had a reputation last night. A good number of his "dreadful" cronies were with him and all filled up as customers. A dispute arose over some trifling matter and Stevens becoming enraged drew a big knife and stabbed White twice in the breast near the left lung. Officer Wilkinson arrested Stevens and took him to the police station where he was charged with assault with intent to kill.

DINNER STORIES.

It is sometimes hard to make other persons understand a question which seems perfectly plain to one's self. Along this line this story was told the other day.

"A gentleman while taking a morning walk down a country lane met a boy driving some pigs to market.

"Whom do these fine pigs belong to?" asked the gentleman.

"Well," said the lad, "they belong to that there big sow."

"No, my boy," said the gentleman; "I mean who is the master of them?"

"Well," replied the lad, "that there little un; 'e's a beggar fer fighting."

Two of the clock and a cold and chilly night. The wind whistled merrily around the corners of the streets and the sky overhead was clouded and threatening.

A policeman, coming stealthily along, saw a suspicious-looking man loitering about outside a certain house. For some time he watched and then determined to solve the mystery.

"Here, you!" he said, advancing suddenly. "What're hanging about this house for?"

The loafer turned his weary eyes on the questioner as he replied:

"I'm only waiting for the lady inside to get to sleep, constable. We're married."
